Online Forms Instructions

Form Completion:

Only the top half of first page, requesting general information, and left column of second page only, general health information, to be filled out along with a parents signature by parents. The doctor will complete the right hand column of the second page.

If your child has had a well check or recent physical, please ask your doctor to fill out the appropriate sport physical form and sign it. A current physical must be good throughout the season

Sports Physicals are required for your child to participate in Sterling Athletics.

Stay tuned to your email for information on when sport physicals may be offered at the school

Once you have completed this form and a doctor has completed it and signed it you must turn the form into the Athletic Director or drop in the SABC Booster drop box in the foyer of the school. The Athletic Director will be at each sports first practices to collect forms and check players in.
